The Susan Tam Trio plays live jazz for the Canadian Diabetes Association

“Want to help cure diabetes? Come listen to some live jazz!”

In an effort to help cure diabetes, the Susan Tam Trio will be presenting jazz standards at the bistro in vivo (4731 rue Ste-Catherine Est, Montréal) on Friday, July 27th and at the pop! bar à vin (250 ave des pins est, Montréal) on Saturday, July 28th. These not-to-miss shows will begin towards 9 pm each evening. The entry fee to attend is a free-will donation (of any amount) to the Canadian Diabetes Association.

The trio consists of

- voice - Susan Tam (www.susan-diabetes.blogspot.com)
- guitar - Axel Fisch (www.myspace.com/axelfischgroup)
- double-bass - André Faleiros (www.myspace.com/faleiros)

Originating from Saskatchewan, Susan started classical piano at the age of 3 and has been singing jazz since 1993. As a vocalist, she has been a member of numerous jazz ensembles that have performed in Banff, Regina, and Montréal.

Susan is also an insulin-dependent diabetic. She will be running her first marathon in Iceland in mid-August as a member of Team Diabetes. As part of the project, she is working to fundraise a minimum of $6100 for the Canadian Diabetes Association, hence the motivation for this benefit concert. More information about this project is available at www.susan-diabetes.blogspot.com .
